What to expect?

You will leave this event armed with powerful knowledge about yourself, about what you want, about your leadership vision and the path you need to take to achieve that vision. You just have to roll up your sleeves, open your mind and listen to your intuition, as you experience new insights and wisdom. You will learn from other participants and the leader-coaches. During and after the program you will be coached and supported in managing the challenges to your leadership vision and plan.

Who should attend?

Leaders of others, business owners, sole entrepreneurs, individuals in positions of influence.
